

Additional considerations

- Disabilities which may be subject to reasonable adjustments – ensure these can be done to enable compliance with the infection control
- Symptoms and history – people who have symptoms should self-isolate in line with the national guidance
- People who have been asked to self-isolate through the NHS Track and Trace service