

Healthy Sexuality v Unhealthy Sexuality

Godly/Healthy Sexuality	Pornography/Unhealthy Sexuality
Caring	Using
Sharing “with” someone	Doing to someone
Honouring	Shameful
Authentic	Deceitful
Enhances your identity	Compromises your identity
Emotional bonding	Emotional separateness
Spiritual unity	Spiritual separateness
Morally saturated	Free from moral convention
Communication is essential	Communication is optional
Other-directed	Selfish, self-directed
Biblical boundaries	No limits
Involves all of the person	Is visual and genital
Naturally drives us toward intimacy	Unnaturally drives us toward compulsion
Naturally drives toward sanctification	Unnaturally drives us toward depravity
Matures into responsible habits	Escalates toward irresponsible risks
Nurtures the spouse	Hurts the partner
Is an expression of love	Is an expression of usefulness
Humanizes	Objectifies
Honours the image of God in you	Dishonours the image of God in you
Honours the image of God in spouse	Dishonours the image of God in others
Provides emotional, moral, psychological and relational clarity	Produces emotional, moral, psychological and relational confusion